

Men's Choir Festival

featuring

Cantus

Join us for a day of men's choir music and unashamed male singing on

September 18, 2012

Dr. Gary P. Wilson from Lipscomb University will rehearse the men during the day. In the afternoon, the professional men's choir Cantus will provide a clinic for a local high school men's choir. In the evening, the festival choir will present a concert prior to the performance by Cantus, then join with the men of Cantus for a grand finale number.

Bring a quartet, an octet, or the entire men's section. Cost is $10 per student which includes lunch. Director's lunch is provided at no additional charge.
